C1 exam format in TUL Language Centre

Written part C1

Written exam	Task description	Points
Duration: 135 min	50% business elements 50% technical elements Number of tasks: 8	Total: 80 p.
1. LISTENING (two 6 min. texts, played twice, one of them relating to business and the other popular science)	1. Text 1 – different types of tasks: general and specific understanding, information transfer (true false, multiple choice, cloze, matching).	10 x 1= 10 p.
	2. Text 2 – different types of tasks: general and specific understanding, information transfer (true false, multiple choice, cloze, matching).	10 x 1= 10 p.
2. READING (two texts: quasi-technical (topics: IT, computers, production process, environmental protection, energy sources) and business, 4-6 numbered paragraphs, 350-400 words each)	3. Text 1 – different types of tasks (text organisation, understanding of both general and specific information, completion, matching, multiple).	10 x 1= 10 p.
	4. Text 2 – different types of tasks (text organisation, understanding of both general and specific information, completion, matching, multiple choice).	10 x 1= 10 p.
3. LANGUAGE ELEMENTS	5. Grammar – checking knowledge of grammatical forms, transformations.	8 x 1= 8 p.
	6. 7. Lexis – various types of tasks: completing the correct form of given words – word formation, knowledge of synonyms, phrasal verbs, idioms .	7 x 1 = 7 p. 5 x 1 = 5p.
4. WRITING	8. One of the two topics to choose from (200-250 words). - Evaluation or information report. - Extended transactional email (which may include elements of job application/admission for studies, enquiries, complaints, proposals, offers).	20 p.

Spoken part C1

- The exam is passed individually and is evaluated by two examiners.
- The exam starts when the candidate enters the examination room. (The order according to the applicable list of candidates).
- The exam takes place exclusively in a foreign language.
- The results of the oral examination are published on the website of the Language Centre no later than 10 a.m. on the following day.

Spoken exam	Task description	Points
Duration: max 12 min.	Number of tasks: 3	20 p.
Task 1 2 minutes Interview	The candidate is asked to introduce himself/herself and prove their identity. Next, the examiner conducts an interview with the candidate about his/her studies, future or already completed work, professional plans, interests. (In each set, in the examiner's version, there are 2 questions).	5 p.
Task 2 5 minutes PRESENTATION	The candidate presents a previously prepared topic from the following category: innovative - product/device - process - system - service directly related to the field of study. The presentation must have a formal sales pitch structure and contain expressions/vocabulary characteristic of this form. It is required to illustrate the presentation with visual material (max. 5 elements), which is also assessed and attached to the examination report. Visual materials must be marked with a registration number and the student's name.	8 p.
Task 3 5 minutes DISCUSSION	The presentation is immediately followed by a discussion - question-answer session in which the candidate and both examiners participate. Number of questions unlimited. There is a time limit of 5 minutes.	7 p.